Lili,

I'm so sorry to hear that. I wish you a speedy recovery.

I will keep an eye out for Neil's on Saturday and keep in touch.

Best to you,
Lorena

> Thanks that is good news. As far as meeting tomorrow it might not work. After seeing 3 doctors in the past six weeks for a swollen painful foot I finally got results from an mri that show I have two metatarsal fractures. I'm seeing an orthopedic foot specialist tomorrow to see if there's any more damage I've done from walking on a broken foot for 6 weeks!! It's been an awful experience. Don't know if he's going to put me in a cast or a boot or what...but I'll be in touch. Thank you great night.

I look forward to meeting you.

How much trouble is he going to have since Mesa is closed? He would like to know if you can alert the staff that he will have to come a go several times during the day.

I'll call you on Monday. Thanks
